INITIAL DECISION AND ORDER

Statement of the Case

The subject property is presently valued as follows:

LAND VALUE	IMPROVEMENT VALUE	TOTAL VALUE	ASSESSMENT
$275,000	$1,900,200	$2,183,200	$545,800

An appeal has been filed on behalf of the property owners with the State Board of Equalization. The appeal was timely filed on September 28, 2005.

This matter was reviewed by the undersigned administrative law judge pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated, §§ 67-5-1412, 67-5-1501 and 67-5-1505. A hearing was conducted on March 29, 2006 at the Davidson County Property Assessor's Office. Present at the hearing were Robert M. Parten, agent for the appellant, and Davidson County Property Assessor's representative's, Dennis Donovan and Jason Poling.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Subject property consists of a single family residence located at 32 Northumberland in Nashville, Tennessee.

The taxpayer contends that the property is worth $1,450,000 based on sales comparables. Mr. Parten submitted several comparable analyses in support of his contention of value.

The assessor contends that the property should be valued at $2,183,200.

The presentation by the taxpayer shows that a lot of time and effort was put into preparing for this hearing. The taxpayers exhibit (collective exhibit #1) shows that thoughtful planning and research were used in the compilation; however, the germane issue is the value of the property as of January 1, 2005.

The basis of valuation as stated in Tennessee Code Annotated Section 67-5-601(a) is that “[t]he value of all property shall be ascertained from the evidence of its sound, intrinsic and immediate value, for purposes of sale between a willing seller and a willing buyer without consideration of speculative values. . .” (emphasis added)

Since the taxpayer is appealing from the determination of the Davidson County Board of Equalization, the burden of proof is on the taxpayer. See State Board of Equalization Rule 0600-1-.11(1) and Big Fork Mining Company v. Tennessee Water Quality Control Board, 620 S.W.2d 515 (Tenn. App. 1981).

When explaining the analysis of the comparable sale, Mr. Parten was asked how he came up with some of the percentages he used in making his adjustment figures. Mr. Parten could give no concrete basis for the 2% adjustment given to Comp #1 for the view, on the other hand, Comp #3 "has an absolutely breathtaking view and is adjusted a total of 10% for the view".

While arguable, view is an amenity that a home buyer will consider in purchasing a home, giving an arbitrary 10% adjustment does not appear to be "ascertained from the evidence of its sound, intrinsic and immediate value". Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-601(a).

As the Dryvitt, an adjustment of 15% was given because of the "negative stigma in the buyer's eyes". It should be noted that the county has no specific policy on the 'Dryvitt Issue'. Mr. Parten argues that it is an issue that must be addressed because it affects the value of the homes that have it as an exterior finish. However, no proof was produced which showed the actual cost for removal or replacement of this exterior. It is a "speculative" cost in the future.

The administrative judge finds that the taxpayer's equalization argument must be rejected. The administrative judge finds that the April 10, 1984 decision of the State Board of Equalization in Laurel Hills Apartments, et al. (State Board of Equalization) (Davidson County, Tax Years 1991-1992) holds that "as a matter of law property in Tennessee is required to be valued and equalized according to the 'Market Value Theory'." As stated by the Board, the Market Value Theory requires that property "be appraised annually at full market value and equalized by application of the appropriate appraisal ratio. . ." Id. at 1. (emphasis added)

With respect to the issue of market value, the administrative judge finds that Mr. Chrisman simply introduced insufficient evidence to affirmatively establish the market value of subject property as of January 1, 2005, the relevant assessment date pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-504(a).

The administrative judge finds that the procedure normally utilized in the sales comparison approach has been summarized in one authoritative text as follows:

To apply the sales comparison approach, an appraiser follows a systematic procedure.

1. Research the competitive market for information on sales transactions, listings, and offers to purchase or sell involving properties that are similar to the subject property in terms of characteristics such as property type, date of sale, size, physical condition, location, and land use constraints. The goal is to find a set of comparable sales as similar as possible to the subject property.
2. Verify the information by confirming that the data obtained is factually accurate and that the transactions reflect arm's-length, market considerations. Verification may elicit additional information about the market.

3. Select relevant units of comparison (e.g., price per acre, price per square foot, price per front foot) and develop a comparative analysis for each unit. The goal here is to define and identify a unit of comparison that explains market behavior.
4. Look for differences between the comparable sale properties and the subject property using the elements of comparison. Then adjust the price of each sale property to reflect how it differs from the subject property or eliminate that property as a comparable. This step typically involves using the most comparable sale properties and then adjusting for any remaining differences.
5. Reconcile the various value indications produced from the analysis of comparables into a single value indication or a range of values.

Appraisal Institute, The Appraisal of Real Estate at 422 (12th ed. 2001). Andrew B. & Marjorie S. Kjellin, (Shelby County, Tax Year 2005).

After having reviewed all the evidence in this case, the administrative judge finds that the subject property should be valued at $2,183,200 based upon the presumption of correctness attaching to the decision of the Davidson County Board of Equalization.

ORDER

It is therefore ORDERED that the following value and assessment be adopted for tax year 2005:

LAND VALUE	IMPROVEMENT VALUE	TOTAL VALUE	ASSESSMENT
$275,000	$1,900,200	$2,183,200	$545,800

It is FURTHER ORDERED that any applicable hearing costs be assessed pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1501(d) and State Board of Equalization Rule 0600-1-.17.

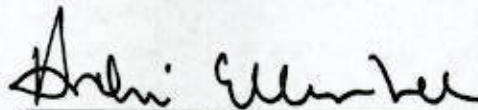

Pursuant to the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, Tenn. Code Ann. §§ 4-5-301—325, Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1501, and the Rules of Contested Case Procedure of the State Board of Equalization, the parties are advised of the following remedies:

1. A party may appeal this decision and order to the Assessment Appeals Commission pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 67-5-1501 and Rule 0600-1-.12 of the Contested Case Procedures of the State Board of Equalization. Tennessee Code Annotated § 67-5-1501(c) provides that an appeal “must be filed within thirty (30) days from the date the initial decision is sent.” Rule 0600-1-.12 of the Contested Case Procedures of the State Board of Equalization provides that the appeal be filed with the Executive Secretary of the State Board and that the appeal “identify the allegedly erroneous finding(s) of fact and/or conclusion(s) of law in the initial order”; or

2. A party may petition for reconsideration of this decision and order pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-317 within fifteen (15) days of the entry of the order. The petition for reconsideration must state the specific grounds upon which relief is requested. The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not a prerequisite for seeking administrative or judicial review; or
3. A party may petition for a stay of effectiveness of this decision and order pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-316 within seven (7) days of the entry of the order.

This order does not become final until an official certificate is issued by the Assessment Appeals Commission. Official certificates are normally issued seventy-five (75) days after the entry of the initial decision and order if no party has appealed.

ENTERED this 28th day of April, 2006.
